MESSAGE FROM YOUR EDITOR

'Tis the holiday season, busy bees! With the year coming to an end, it also means that we are beginning to look into the future. For seniors, the bulk of college applications is over! Though it will be stressful to wait for decisions starting early next year (or even this year for early decision and early action), make sure to take a breather and to allow yourself to rest. As for the rest of you, make sure to continue putting in your best effort and to look into what you want to do in the next months! This includes running for an officer position, what courses you want to take next year, or even your new year's resolution. Regardless, I know you all worked hard this year, so treat yourself to something fun this month!

December 1st marks the beginning of conclave season. What does this embark, you might ask? This includes Candidate Training Conference, or CTC, an opportunity for Key Clubbers to learn about the tasks of a Lieutenant Governor. It's especially helpful for those who are interested in running, as it prepares you for Conclave! If you have any questions about CTC, be sure to ask your LTG. Don't be afraid, since it shows great initiative to take on such a large role!

As the pandemic continues to spread, make sure to stay safe! Especially with the holiday season, it is important that we try our best to keep ourselves, our families and friends, and those around us safe. Keep on pushing through. You got this, bees!

GOVERNOR

Hello CNH!

I hope all of you are finishing strong as we approach the end of 2020. It has been a crazy and wild year, but every single one of you has been so strong and resilient. Let us make sure to keep this fire going all the way to the end.

Looking at our first batch of district dues, it is amazing to see the remarkable progress that every club is making during this pandemic. All my expectations were blown away the moment I saw the dues report and I am confident that if we keep going at this rate, we can attain our district goal!

Please continue to recruit members during this time. Especially with people being completely settled into school, it is the perfect time to spice up their lives by inviting them to join Key Club. Whether you are a member or an officer, you have the power in you to bring someone into an organization that changes lives.

If you are ever feeling down, please make sure to reach out to your friends and family. We are all going through these tough times together and remember that you are never alone.

Thank you for all that you do CNH. The progress you have made during this pandemic is legendary and I cannot believe the amount of drive and passion that every member holds in our district. Keep serving CNH and I hope to see you all again soon!

SECRETARY

Greetings, CNH!

Welcome to the last month of 2020 is at its end. This year has history books, and I can confidently say that we have made it through. Now that we are halfway into the new year, it is the time to reflect on the goals of the term and evaluate how strong.

At this point in the term, you can probably have an idea of what officer position you want to run for. If you are an underclassman, I encourage you all to shoot your shot and be passionate about it. You never know; I have never thought I would be an executive, but shooting my shot was the best decision I've ever made.

If you ever need guidance on where to go from here in your Key Club journey, please feel free to message me. I do have experience being a member at the Division, and District level, and can definitely give you some words of advice on your position!

Thank you always for all your hard work and support CNH, you all deserve it! I hope you all have a phenomenal year and have a warm and cheery end to the year!

All are likely to have a good year. If you want to run for next year if you always want to encourage others to run for the positions you are interested in, know unless you try. I would like to become a CNH District Governor. Not at this position has been reached!

TREASURER

What's Poppin', Bees!

I hope you are all doing well! November is a busy month for Key Club members as it is a key time period for membership dues. If you are an officer, please make sure your club's dues are turned in as soon as possible. Dues can be turned in by check and mail or also by credit card online through the Membership Update Center. After submitting your dues, make sure to follow up on the status of your club by checking for the most recent dues report, which can be found in the Treasurers section of the CNH CyberKey. Dues can take up to weeks to process if they were sent by check and mail.

As a district, we are slowly but surely making progress towards our district goal for the Pediatric Trauma Program. Clubs, please make sure to continue holding fundraisers and also submitting the funds raised!

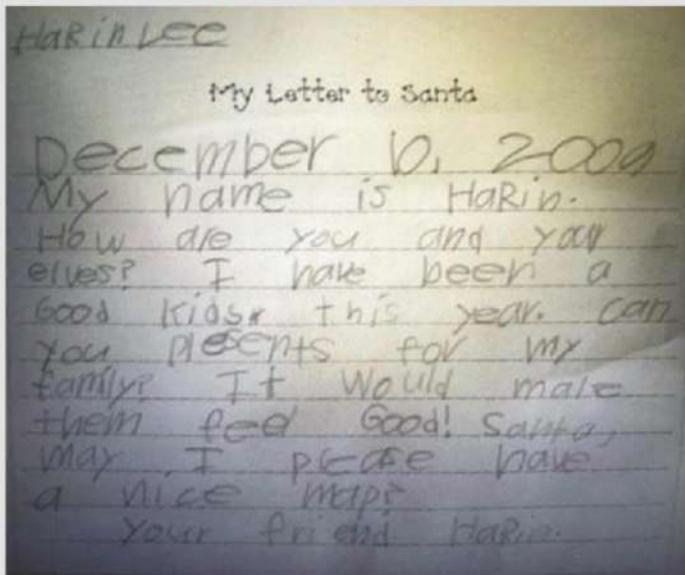

Other than dues and fundraising for PTP, make sure you are actively applying for recognition as deadlines are quickly approaching. Reach out to your club officers or Lieutenant Governors for help in finding which awards you are eligible for. The Member Recognition Committee has created several resources for members to learn more about the various opportunities for district and international recognition! I hope you have a wonderful holiday season with your families and stay safe!

healthcare hallo-grams

Jefferson | D34N | R17

"We planned this event two weeks prior to the event day. We wanted to show our appreciation and gratitude towards healthcare workers during this hard time. Since it is October, we took the idea of Unicef and wanted to educate more people about it! After our key club general meeting, we help our project event for one and a half hours. During this time, we played music for our members while they worked on their cards. We had them make at least three cards where they put positive notes and puns on the front, with an educational note about Unicef and Key Club on the back! This event was a simple one but it is able to brighten up people's day, which is worth it. The project was successful in which our members enjoyed doing it and was able to showcase their art skills and write notes towards people that they might really look up to or respect. One certain aspect our service projects can improve on is the timing, where some of our members finish their cards very fast and did not make more. This might be a problem because they are not using the full time wisely, but we can take this and think of other ways we can expand our requirements so that the members can use the whole time more efficiently."

unicef donation collection

Waiakea | D22M | R18

"Usually we use Trick-or-Treat for UNICEF boxes to collect donations throughout the month and especially on Halloween. However, due to the ongoing pandemic situation, this was not ideal to do this year. Initially, we were going to use the online donation box that UNICEF had set up but we realized that we had no way of knowing who was making the donations. Therefore, we decided that we would have members collect donations (safely) and we would have a collection station for contactless collection. Although not pertaining directly to MNT, we also participated in UNICEF Math Challenge that raises money for UNICEF as a whole through math quiz questions online. This project gave our club a new method for donation collection if we ever need to fundraise for charity again this way. We had a number of donations, not as many as we usually do, but it was not bad considering the current pandemic situation. I think we could have motivated members more to collect donations. The UNICEF Math Challenge is something we can continue to do even after the pandemic is over. Since we were always doing projects in-person, we never looked into many virtual projects. However, this Math Challenge is accessible to and doable for everyone so I can see us continuing this project into the future."

bedwars fundraiser

Gregori | D46N | R12

"This project was planned out a month in advance so that we could have a sufficient time to advertise and accumulate more people to help us donate to PTP and UNICEF. We were able to receive help from a few of our generous club members who kindly set up a Discord for participants to communicate and create a Minecraft Bedwars server for us. After careful consideration and lots of discussions, we were able to release a registration form, advertisement, and allow anyone to join our event. Members who wanted to register as an individual would give a donation of $3 and those who wanted to register as a team would give a donation of $2 per player. On the day of the competition, participants were grouped into their respective teams on Discord and the teams followed a bracket system throughout the duration of the tournament. As the tournament came to an end, we congratulate our winning team and rewarded their efforts with a cash prize."

CLUB FAIR. DIVISION 44 SOUTH

EL DORADO,
AJA BRUNET

This month our school had club fairs for the clubs at El Dorado High School. We were one of the clubs that had a stand there, and it went well. Our club president, Jayce Kaldunski, with the help from our Kiwanis advisor Sophie Cabrera and nearly all of our members, organized an amazing stand. We thought to put fun snacks like chips or candy out to attract students and if they signed up on the email list they could spin the wheel to get a random fun item! The items ranged from t-shirts to pens to pieces of candy. Many of our members, new and old, helped out at the stand and recruited many new members. It was a very popular stand and many more people signed up so possibly be a new member. It was a great event and our club was very happy to be able to do it during our covid-guidelined school time.

CUPERTINO, SOPHIA CHO

We went over to the Palo Alto Baylands to help clean the duck pond. We started off by wiping down the dewy benches and planter boxes. Then we added a fresh coat of paint to the planter boxes and some started to stain the wooden fence. Others helped remove the algae from the perimeter of the duck pond with a fire hose.

IN-PERSON SERVICE HERITAGE, ASHLEE DAVIES

At our first in-person event of the term on October 17th, members met at a park to make dog toys and cards for health care workers. This event was a great opportunity for members to rekindle their spirit for service after the difficulty to be active in Key Club over the shelter in place. Following COVID-19 precautions, we were able to convene for service while still staying safe. We also took this opportunity to collect member's dues and books for our book drive.

One member, Abbey Bracamonte, recounted, "Key Club's first in-person event was really fun. I haven't seen most of the members since March, so it was so nice seeing everyone in person and not through a screen. It was also nice to see everyone wearing masks and social distancing. Safe-key." The in-person event was a great way for members to remember why they joined Key Club in the first place: for the service and community that our club creates. Connecting back to the initial reason why we join Key Club is a great motivator to stay involved, especially since we are limited to our events that we are able to have.

Another member, Drake Sparling, said, "It was really refreshing to actually have an in-person event, combining both what Key Club was like pre-covid while still maintaining safety. It was such a fun event and I felt completely safe because we all wore masks willingly." As we integrate back toward how our club operated before coronavirus, safety is our number one priority. Making sure that all of our members' remain healthy is far more important than returning to in-person service or bonding events.
